Dog Training Demonstration Mansfield Public Library Wednesday, March 6

Come, Doggy, Come...

The Mansfield Parks & Recreation Department invites you to our late winter dog training demonstration offered by Jane Young. Admission is free and open to the public. The demonstration will be held on Wednesday, March 6 from 7:00 to 8:30pm at the Mansfield Public Library Community Meeting Room located at 255 Hope Street in Mansfield. All ages are welcome but please leave your pets at home.

During the presentation Jane will discuss handling a pup that doesn't always listen when called especially in the face of distraction, recall, and much, much more. Autographed copies of Jane's book, Dog Teaching: Surviving a Puppy will be available to purchase after the demonstration.

Jane has been training dogs for obedience competition for 20+ years. Along with training her own dogs, Jane teaches for MSPCA-Angell in Jamaica Plain. Additionally, she founded Foxfield Dog Training, a home-based program for pet owners and their dogs. For additional information, please contact the Recreation Department at or 508.851.6458 or recreation@mansfieldma.com.
